

2

All learning begins with using your five senses as you make observations about the world around you. Get ready to use these five special tools as you follow the Nature Stroll signs.

