

8

Thanks for taking a Nature Stroll. We hope you learned something about your five senses. When you get home, draw or write about your observations. Be sure to include the location, weather, time of the day and date. You are a scientist!

